

♥ welcome to BlissHEALING

DECEMBER EDITION twenty eleven ♥

I recently reacquired an appreciation for travel, so this month I am guided to add some of the planet's SACRED PLACES.

Ofcourse each 'place' is Sacred on Earth ... Recall :: Welcome to BlissHEALING March 2011 :: article on Zibu for Sacred Place to honour the Sacred within your place ♥

As a 'Radelaide' born Priestess, I am feeling INTEGRATED after a recent FAMILY JOURNEY. Everything in Adelaide is designed and purposeful. The suburbs, seafront and surrounding rural areas are filled with stone architecture. Still standing strong as testament to 'getting it right'.

Adelaide itself, is linked to the Ancient Civilisation of ATLANTIS. Crystal generators exist today in the nearby oceans.

In this Edition

:: SACRED PLACES ::
:: ANGEL GUIDANCE BOARD READING ::
~Healing with the Angels Oracle Deck~
:: DEITIES & DIVINATION ::

This Edition we will celebrate all that is DIVINE ♥

Honouring :: DIVINATION :: DEVOTION :: DEDICATION

May the Peace of Love be with you this season
Thankyou for joining me here throughout this wonder filled year

:: SACRED PLACES ::

The word SACRED stems from late middle English and refers to a connectedness to God or Love. It has reference to statement and honouring of this high energy... a declaration of it's divinity, giving it status and depicting a high vibration.

This article is inspired by a book I found in the local library, simply entitled, 'Sacred Places~Sites of Spirituality and Faith' by Rebecca Hind.

:: THE WHITE HORSE AT UFFINGTON, OXFORDSHIRE, ENGLAND ::

This is approximately 3000 years old and made with packed white chalk. At the foot of the creases of these hills is Dragon Hill, where St George defeated the dragon. This white horse figure is 110 metres long. It is visible from afar and seems to point to the heavens. It has links to the Celtic lunar goddess of fertility and healing, Epona .. the protector of horses.

:: SRI PADA, SRI LANKA ::

I love that so many faiths honour this wonderful landmark... and that is also called 'Butterfly Mountain' !!

➤ The Hindus believe it is where Shiva brought the world into being with his Creation Dance.

➤ The Buddhists believe that this is the mark of Buddha's actual footprint, pressed into a sapphire.

➤ The Christian's believe that this is where Adam took his first step from Heaven onto Earth.

:: ULURU, KATA TJUTA NATIONAL PARK, NT ::

This stands 348 metres high, is made of sandstone and many crystals including Epidote. Most of it's mass lays under the ground! It is the remnants of an ancient mountain range that has eroded. Uluru's circumference is nearly 9.5 kms.

I have long been fascinated with this area, and this great rock.

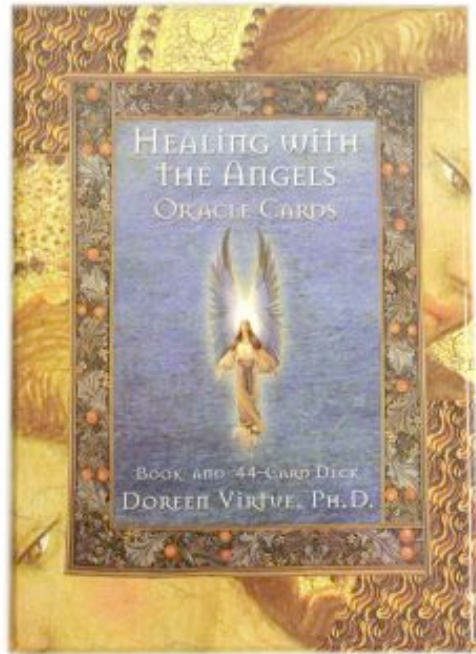

It is well renowned for it's colour changes throughout the day and night and throughout the seasons.

Once I was given the idea to hold a massive gathering at Uluru. The premise being that you invite someone you know & someone you don't know ... enabling a broad spectrum of individuality and unity to one place.

Powerful stuff!

:: ANGEL GUIDANCE BOARD READING ::
~Healing with the Angels Oracle Deck~

First printed in 1999, Doreen Virtue's first Oracle Card Deck. I began with a Moon Garden Tarot Deck and learned Numerology and Colour Symbolism as well as honing my intuition when I discovered Angel Oracle cards. I always found a 'positive' twist to any of the meanings in the Tarot, and studied the history behind them, so I understood they were an ancient communication tool, and that they were in a process of evolving... hence the Angel Oracle Decks.

Every single card is SUPPORTIVE, SPIRITUALLY GUIDING, SUCCINCT and SOULFUL.

This month, I am utilising my brand new copy of my first ever Angel Oracle Deck. My original deck will go to good use. It is SO lovely to see all these stunning images in their shining glory! Thank YOU Angels

HOME :: ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL :: SELF ACCEPTANCE

Strong guidance here indicates that where you are living is right for now. No need to move. That HOME is a place to truly be your true self.. to honour every nuance every quirk, every facet of your self.

The Angels are with us every step of the way, creating our Best Life.

Calling upon the Angels in your 'safe' home environment allows a greater respect and confidence in all aspects.

If, however, you are conflicted within the home environment, call upon Archangel Michael now, to clear and protect you.. he will instantly usher away any and all lower energies and allow you to have a harmonious home life.

Archangel Jophiel reminds us that she is available to beautify our home, our thoughts and our living area. Her colour is magenta.

ROMANCE :: ROMANCE ANGELS :: BALANCE

Here we see classic yin and yang/male and female energies at play. When we are balanced in our own selves, we find truth and harmony within our relationships. Specifically from the Romance Angels, they say that both rest and outgoing energy are relevant this month. It is vital to listen within and also utilise your physical body in an active way.

Honing these levels enhances our relationships on all layers. It allows others the grace to find their inner/outer balance too. The Angels show that we are moving closer and closer to the Highest Humane Energy as shown on the Earth's Blueprint. That we are aligning well with our Soul Groups, connecting well with our Soul Partners, and most importantly, connecting well to Source Energy. Have Fun.

MONEY :: ARCHANGEL ARIEL :: BLESSINGS

What a great card in the money section! Archangel Ariel is GRINNING.. she does that! She is showing that so many of our true heart felt wishes are being granted this month. I am also seeing many grandparents in Spirit showering gifts of love, wisdom and material things upon us.

Do write that 'wish list'... Your Angels are on the job, 24/7 gathering situations, people and material possessions to your side.

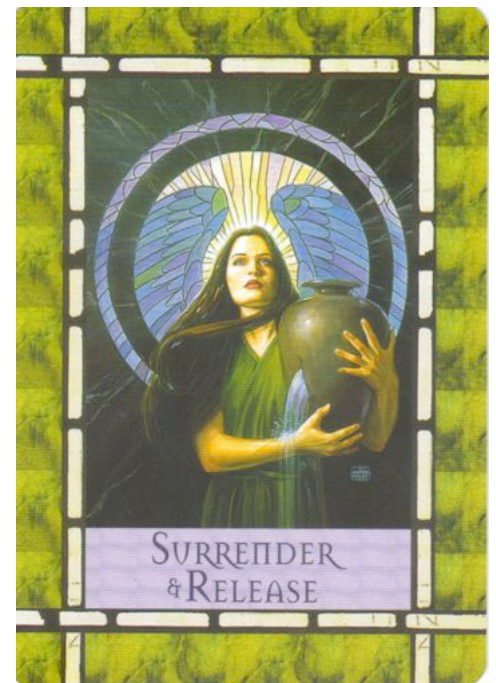

This is a time of ripening, wholeness and bounty. Allow your heart to expand and offer blessings in your own, unique way. It is ok to be different. It is always best to be yourself.

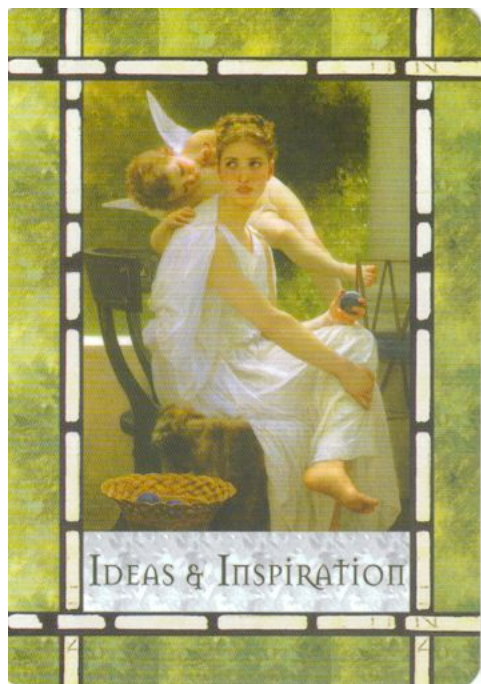

Make your gifts when you can... and make time to really honour the blessings in your lives.

CAREER :: ARCHANGEL CHAMUEL :: SURRENDER & RELEASE

The Angels are giving us a pat on the back. They show that ALL of us have been diligent with our energy and our working lives this year. A true vibrational group consciousness effort, Archangel Chamuel shows.

He is guiding us to wind down gently this month ... and to just as gently begin again after the holiday season. He shows the relevance of CYCLES... how the planets and in nature, there are natural rhythms and a flowing energy. Utilising this energy will enhance our Chakra Systems, our Intuition and our Inner Passions. Some things will change in our careers/vocations... relax and follow your Divine Guidance. All is well.

The image of this card is what Archangel Michael is referencing this month. He indicates that wearing light, bright clothing attracts positive energies. That eating fresh, seasonal fruits outdoors enhances our vibrations and allows the constant Heavenly messages offered us to be heard and integrated.

He is guiding us to be open and vigilant to new ideas regarding our passions and interests, as these are a direct indicator of our true Life Purpose.

As we ascend we are becoming more and more the Earth Angels of society. Speak clearly, speak honestly, and be kind these holidays.

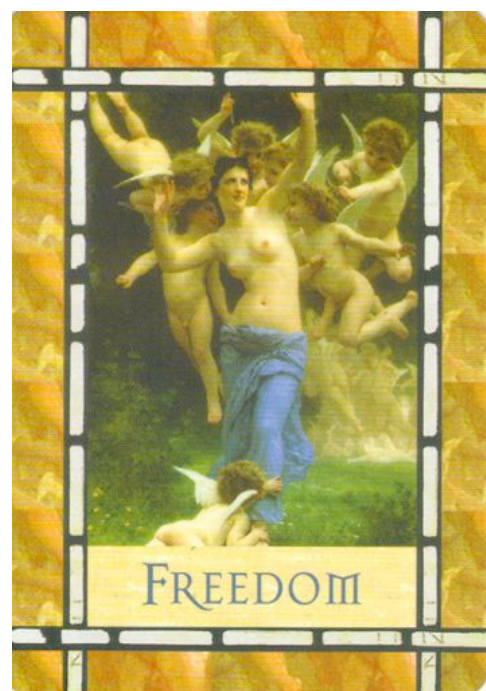

Our Angels are with us every step of the way.

CHILDREN :: ARCHANGEL GABRIELLE & ARCHANGEL METATRON :: FREEDOM

Our children relish the freedom from routine that holidays bring. Allow them to simply play.. no set timetables, no schedules.. no school bells or alarm clocks. Let their own body rhythms re-set and re-charge.

This card also relates to our inner child, and the same applies above. Less time scheduling, alarms and to-do lists for a bit. More liberation, allowing and investigating.

The Angels also show by this card, that now could be the right time to conceive a child if this is relevant for you.

FAMILY & FRIENDS ::
ARCHANGEL RAGUEL ::
HEALING

Archangel Raguel's aura is this lovely blue. He is showing that he has been working with us constantly with our friends and families and that true healing is occurring. He shows the image of layers, that we are mostly through them all, and this season is pivotal for peace. You will notice the clarity, warmth and ease with regard to communicating with your loved ones.

Now is the time to receive and give healing, in the form of love and compassion. Allowing each to be themselves. Remaining centred and honouring Spirit. Shalom. Amen.

HEALTH :: ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL :: ENCHANTMENT

Wohoo! I LOVE unicorns! When I went to see Doreen Virtue in 2007 we were on a large open golf course and enjoying a sacred ceremony. I saw so many unicorns freed that night! Doreen is currently again in Queensland, so I am intuiting that many more unicorns are now in this vibration!

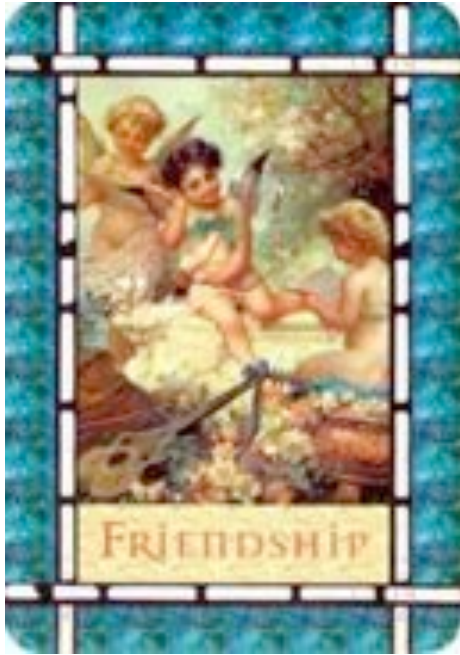

The message from this card is to honour sacred ceremony, believe in the miraculous and to go outdoors often for your wholistic healing.

Archangel Raphael is also the Archangel of traveling so call out to him for health during your travels. (I did on my recent flights) He shows that even while riding a bicycle, call upon him and the unicorns to join you. Enchantment stimulates the Spirit, enhancing full body health.

What is more enchanting than a unicorn accompanying a bike ride??

SPIRITUAL PATH :: ARCHANGEL URIEL :: FRIENDSHIP

If you are like me, you love your own company. My Angels are always with me, guiding me regarding a person's true intentions.

Archangel Uriel illuminates our friendships this month, and makes this theme part of our learning on our Spiritual Path.

The Angels always tell me it is better to be your own best friend than remain in the company of false friends, and the friends I have today are filled to the brim with Source Energy connection. Yum!

Allow your friends to be conduits for Spiritual Grace. Call upon your Inner Wisdom and allow true transformation into every area of your relationships.

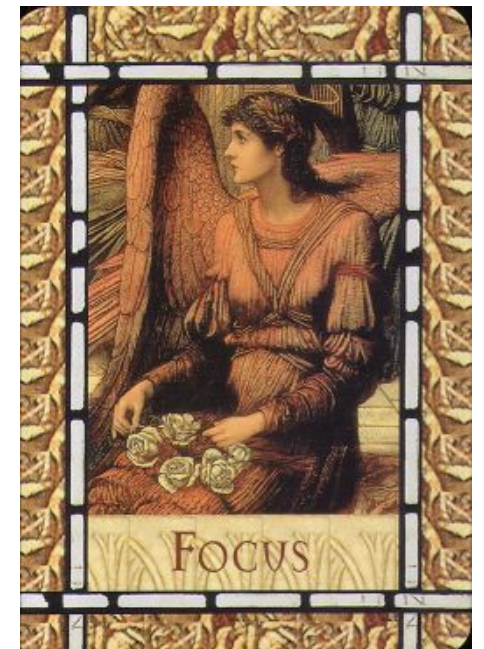

Grace is free, kind and infinitely wise. Welcome in true Divinity.

PSYCHIC DEVELOPMENT :: ARCHANGEL RAZIEL & ARCHANGEL HANIEL :: FOCUS

The message from the Angels is to focus on your desired outcome, then work back from there with human steps. Visualise your preference, feel it, embrace it... then let the Angels guide you fully from there.

It is a sensory workout in a way. Today we have a barrage of 7 second sound bites. True focus reaps wonderful rewards. You are more than worth it.

Just before sleep... focus your intention, call in your Angels, and allow.

YES OR NO :: ARCHANGEL AZRAEL :: SPIRITUAL GROWTH

The message is clear here. If we are willing to grow Spiritually, we are able to predetermine the outcome. Co-creating yes or no answers with Divine Will.

The image shows us letting go, and allowing Angelic blessings to fall to us. Gold is also relevant here. When we visualise gold in our auras and around a certain situation, we are invoking a high protective and masterful energy. Gold encapsulates the rainbow colours of our chakra systems. It reflects and enables only love to penetrate in and out. It is a colour of attainment.

The fairies are also guiding us with our 'queries' this month. If there is a question of yes or no, let go off pre-conceived concepts and let the true answer reveal itself. You will 'k'now.

WHEN WILL IT HAPPEN :: ARCHANGEL JEREMIEL :: SERENITY

Archangel Jeremiel knows our lives. He knows our life paths and he knows the timing in which all is to occur. His colour ray is deep purple. He kindly shows that serenity brings serenity. By allowing a serene attitude toward timing in our lives, we honour Divine Timing and this brings about a feeling of serenity.

He shows the sideways figure 8 symbol of Universal Love. Many find that tracing this in the air brings about a feeling of calming serenity. Try it for yourself. Trace it in the air above your sleeping pillow too so that divine timing may filter through into your dreamstate.

Repeat after me: 'Serenity is my preferred state of mind. I find Serenity easily now. Serenity. Serenity. Serenity.'

Aahhh !

ANGEL BLESSINGS OF INFINITE BLISS
TO YOU AND THOSE YOU LOVE
FOR A HAPPY
LITHA
YULE

:::DEITIES & DIVINATION:::

This Universe is infinitely filled with benevolent and wise beings. Throughout history Saints and Deities have been revered for their connection with Divine Energy. The following is a small list inspired by 'The Complete Encyclopedia of Angels.' Lists in the future may just contain You!

:::WHITE FIRE EAGLE:::

Work with White Fire Eagle to help you weave the story you'd like to live. He adores flying! He will lift your spirits and soothe you with his rhythmical beating wings. His light will enhance your own and you will emulate his brightness as you ignite your own Spirit.

Look to the skies and imagine yourself in flight up high above the white billowing clouds. Feel the inspiration that a new perspective offers you.

White Fire Eagle will help you rise above limitations.

:::HI'IAKA:::

Hi'iaka is a Hawaiian deity and one of Pele's sisters. Her energy is one of forgiveness and compassion, for Pele was hasty in her actions regarding her sister.

She will mend troubled relationships and knows the transformative powers of nature to heal. She loves groves of trees and will delight in helping you in your garden. Green is her favourite colour, the colour of the heart chakra.

:::MAHA COHAN:::

Maha Cohan is an Ascended Master linked with white doves, crystals and peace. He assists us with deepening our connection with ourselves and our Spirit.

He is often referred to as the Messenger, and will gently offer guidance like fluttering dove's wings.

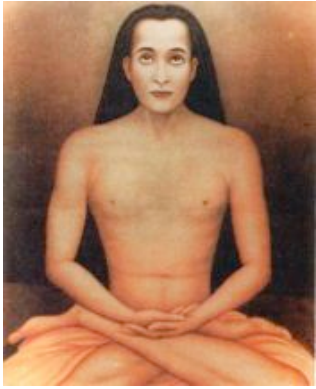

Just as he is gentle, he is also direct and will truly expect you to honour his guidance. He is clear and concise and is a gatekeeper.. he greets each person when they are born and when they die. He has been with you all your life.

:::ATHENA:::

Athena's physical links are olive trees, peace and wisdom. She is a renowned Goddess of war, yet she always chooses peace in any opportunity. She is connected with the owl. She will assist you with knowing the real truth in any situation. Her messages are short and sweet and stylish. Trust her. She is connected with the source of the Delphi Oracles.

::BABAJI & PARAMAHANSA YOGANANDA::

Babaji when called upon sometimes appears as a lotus flower emanating brilliant light. He helps us realise the power and transformative energy of love.

Baba = Father & Ji = respect.

He will align you with Prana, Grace & Bliss.

Paramahansa was one of Babaji's most famous disciples, as written about in his 'Autobiography of a Yogi. Paramahansa's message is one of Peace, deep Inner Peace. Both share teachings regarding Self Realisation.

::ALTJIRA::

Altjira is a Creator God in Aranda Aboriginal Dreamtime. He created everything then left, heading up to reside in the sky. The learning we can garner from Altjira is to let go. Once we have created something and given it life, sometimes it is relevant to walk away and allow it to evolve on it's own.

Work with this Dreamtime Deity if your work is getting too serious. He will help you play and enjoy life. He also guides us during our dreams. Before sleep let him know what you are wishing to create, and take note of your following dreams.

My list actually keeps going, but I trust you will enjoy your own research and personal relationships with Guides of Light. Just as we gather contact details for good friends, business contacts and other facets of daily life, so too is a 'spiritual contact list' a great idea.

Have fun adding to your list, practicing your connections and communicating with the Divine.

This is the last BlissHEALING Newsletter for the year. In 2012 I am going to explore the history of chai, continue to publish our Angel Guidance Readings and look forward to new inspiration and products.

Thanks again for joining me on this journey!

Namaste B
