

♥ welcome to Bliss HEALING ♥

June Twenty eleven Edition

We have been utilising the Angel Guidance Board format now since July 2010. By now we are familiar with the Archangel's energies & strengths.

This month, I'd like to offer an overview of the Archangels and share some extra information on a few of the Archangels not previously mentioned.

We chatted with gorgeous Archangel Sandalphon last month, so this Edition we will (re)introduce the other Archangels; Archangel Azrael & Archangel Jeremiel and include excerpts from Dr Doreen Virtue's 2011 book, "The Angel Therapy Handbook."

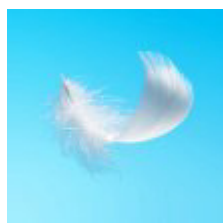

I will include colour rays, crystals and astrological signs as well as information on their helpful gifts so that you may deepen your personal relationships to these links with the Divine.

...“The angels have a purpose to enact God's will, which is peace upon Earth, one person at a time. These beings know that if each of us is peaceful then we'll have a world of peaceful people. So, really, your life's purpose is to be at peace and the angels want to help you with this. While it's true that challenges do help us grow, the angels also say that serenity leads to even bigger growth spurts. Through tranquillity, our schedules and creativity are more open to giving service and our bodies operate in a healthy fashion. Our relationships thrive and blossom and we're shining examples of God's love.”

As an Angel Intuitive, it is part of my Divine Life Purpose to teach about angels. I can do readings and healings and totally love doing so! It is a full on passion of mine. It is during these healings and awakenings, that the angels often suggest ways in which the recipient can garner their OWN angel connections. So this is a save and keep ANGEL SPECIAL version of the regular BlissHEALING, with the aim of planting the seeds to your personal ANGEL CONNECTIONS.

Angels are with us ALL at ALL TIMES. They are divine MESSENGERS of love. They assist us with all facets of our lives and PEACE is their highest aim.

..."Fear is a natural predator of the psychic domain. It robs your psyche of its creative control and asks you to allow it to dominate your moods, schedule and decisions. It weakens you, who are all-powerful. Your decision-making capability is impaired at its behest. Allow no terror to 'inter-fear' with your domain of happiness, for that is God's kingdom of great blessings. You're more powerful than any anxious force. Your Divine willingness can overcome any darkness that the world has ever seen. Your Creator's light will always blind any enemy if you will but focus on this radiance within your mind."

We are all able to connect with Angels for ourselves and others. Doreen Virtue recommends beginning communication with a heart felt prayer...

"Please help me to be a clear channel of Divine communication. Please help me to clearly hear, see, know and feel accurate and detailed messages that will bring blessings to my partner and me. Please watch over this reading and help me relax and enjoy it. Thankyou and amen."

Following is the overview of the Archangels, their characteristics, aura colours and crystals so you may recognise them when you are connecting and also actively work with them. Enjoy ♥

There are many ways we can individually connect with our angels and those of others. We can call upon an Archangel that we know of for a specific situation. We can speak directly to the angels of a certain person and ask them to intervene on our behalf. We can physically call out to the angels, or just as effectively, we can mentally ask our angels absolutely ANYTHING. We can write a letter to the angels... AND we can receive letters from our angels in the form of AUTOMATIC WRITING.

Automatic Writing can be done alone or with another. I first learned about my angels when I was asked to commune with them for another. I would speak their words and my partner would write down what I said. I soon learned how to do both, and find it very effective and relaxing to 'chat' with my angels via the written word. Some days are more auspicious than others for this, New moons are great. I find that before sleep is also very productive.. It seems to 'reset' my connection and clear away the mundane of the day. My dreams are usually more profound on these occasions. Handwriting or typing is fine, whatever you prefer. I find that my hand writing style will alter depending on who is 'chatting' with me. Typing offers spell check and a clear font. You will be amazed at the clarity and helpfulness of automatic writing.

So, you wanna try? I always begin by calling in Archangel Michael, this becomes a natural part of life really, when you are working with the Angels regularly. The benefits are just that good! Calling in Archangel Michael also clears my aura and my living space, it is part of my wholistic health regime, even under the guise of 'writing'. I often directly ask Archangel Gabrielle to assist, especially if I am reading for someone from another culture, and I am unfamiliar with all the dialect their Guardian Angels use. I do feel that Archangel Michael brings her along when I begin my clearing anyway... like teamwork.

Here is a prayer from "The Angel Therapy Handbook" that Doreen Virtue recommends for communicating with your angels through writing.

"Dear God, Holy Spirit, Jesus, Archangel Michael, all of my guides, and all of my angels, I ask that you watch over this automatic-writing session and ensure that anyone who comes through is a positive and loving being. Please boost my ability to clearly hear, see, conceptualise and feel your Divine communication. Please help me accurately receive these messages and bring forth those that will carry blessings to me and to anyone who may read them. Thankyou, and amen."

Visualisation, audio and sensory perception are all other connective ways we commune with the Angels, as well as intuition and ideas.

When you are comfortable with your relationship with Angels, you may like to connect with the angels on another's behalf. This is often called a reading because the Angel Therapist or Angel Intuitive will tune in to the client's aura and relay (or read) what is there. The angels come in nice and close for clear communication.

Doreen offers this creative visualisation...

"Imagine that the two of you are in an exquisite purple pyramid that has magically transported you to a white sandy beach in Hawaii. The purple pyramid lands gently on the sand and opens up, forming a natural blanket for the two of you. It is a perfect day on the island, and since this is a completely isolated beach that's only accessible by boat or plane, you and your partner have total privacy.

You feel the gentle summer breeze blowing across your skin and through your hair. You smell the delicious salt air and hear the waves' melodic crash upon the shore. You feel a beam of sunlight dance warmly over the top of your head, as if it were going right in and illuminating the inside of your mind and body.

Off in the distance, you notice a pod of dolphins swimming playfully in the ocean. You tune in to these creatures, and you feel them send you a huge wave of Divine love energy. As your heart swells with warmth and gratitude for these beautiful animals and this perfect day on the beach, you realise that you're one with the dolphins. And then this realisation extends even further: you are one with all of the life in the ocean ~ including the sea turtles and the colourful tropical fish ~ and you're also one with the waves, the sand, and the sun.

You realise that you're one with all of life, including your partner. And so you mentally affirm to your partner, You and I are one... you and I are one... I am you... and you are me... you and I are one. You realise that this oneness that you share is real. Although you may look different on the outside, on the inside you and your partner truly do share one spirit, one light, one love. You mentally affirm to your partner: One love... one love... one love.

As you revel in this knowingness, you also realise that you're one with all of the angels. As you scan your partner with your physical eyes closed and your spiritual sight wide open, imagine what it would be like if you could see your partner's angels in your mind's eye. What might they look like?

Do you see any that look like small cherubs? How about medium-sized angels? Really large ones? You might see these beings in full detail in your mind's eye, or as fleeting glimpses. Or, you might simply feel or know their presence.

As you scan around your partner one more time, notice any other angels that may be present. If one of more of these beings especially attracts your attention, tune in to them now by holding the intention of connecting with them.

Even if you don't see anyone around your partner, or you're unsure of yourself, you can still receive accurate messages from your partner's angels that will bring blessings to him or her. As you breathe in and out deeply, hold the intention of having a silent conversation with these beings.

Then, mentally ask them, What would you like me to know about my partner? Repeat the question as you take note of impressions that come to you in response. Be aware of any thoughts, words, mental pictures, or feelings that arise as you continue to ask the question What would you like me to know about my partner? There's no force required. Simply trust that the answers are coming to you now, and notice even the subtlest little thought, feeling, vision, or word in your mind.

Next, mentally ask your partner's angels, What message would you like me to tell my partner, from you? Again, be cognizant of any impressions that come to you as thoughts, feelings, visions or words. No judgement is required. Simply view them with detachment.

Then, mentally ask your partner's angels, Is there anything that you'd like to tell me? Be sure to breathe while you take heed of the answer.

Finally, mentally ask these angels, Is there anything else? And thank them as you finish up.

Moving on to our special Angel Giveaway this month... first I'd like to offer some affirmations to assist in connecting with the Angels. As we know, our thoughts and thought patterns directly influence our total reality. As we affirm positive events in our lives, through Universal law, they must arrive. When we truly feel these positive events regardless of whether they have arrived yet or not, this brings them to us so much quicker and with Divine grace.

To actively connect with the Angels it is imperative to hold the intention to do so... they will meet you half way and with their Divine love, will activate your awareness of them and your own divinity.

I EASILY CONNECT WITH THE ANGELS NOW
I ENJOY THE WHOLISTIC FULFILMENT OF MY DIVINITY
I AM ONE WITH ALL OF LOVE... I AM LOVE.
I EASILY SEE ANGELS NOW
I EASILY HEAR ANGELS NOW
I EASILY WORK WITH ANGELS IN ALL AREAS OF MY LIFE.

This month's giveaway is a :: NEW :: ½ hour ONE 2 ONE Angel Reading/Healing Session (if you are local) or a FREE Angel Guidance Wisdom Reading (via email). This will give you first hand experience how the angels connect and commune with YOU for healing and wisdom.

To be in the draw for this giveaway the Angels have guided me to use the whole month to continue 'working with them' as a group.

As you recall, from the info on the Archangels above, they each have an astrological affinity. Now, the Moon, every 2 ½ days moves through a sign of the zodiac. So, the guidance is that, as the moon is in a certain star sign, we work with the corresponding Archangel for that time... and by doing this consciously, the Angels tell me that we will be RAISING THE CONSCIOUSNESS of the WHOLE PLANET! Sweet right!

Through ChaiBLISS Healing on Facebook, I will post the sign the moon is in and the Archangel guiding the days. In this way, we will enhance our Divine Timing alignment, procure manifestation with grace and added assistance and become attuned to the themes of the Archangels on a deeper level.

Simply join in for the month and share your 'comments' to be in the draw! I am thrilled at this 'Angel Activity'. We will begin this with the energy of the New Moon! With many planetary shifts and changes this month ... and a Solstice, it is Divine Timing at it's best. Having Archangel guidance at this time is Heaven Sent.

With loving Bliss and Angel Blessings
